HONGRONG, PRIDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1889 THERE was no talk of libel when Messre Danby and Leigh's letter was read at the last meeting of the Sabitary Board. Even that hot-headed official Mr Mitchell-Innes could not find a word to say. The fact in the letter so thoroughly vindicated the position taken up by Mr Leigh, that, if the Board had been disposed to take any action at all it ought to have been directed against their own servant and not against his socusors Even more damaging than Mr. Leigh direct charges was the reply which M Copper made to them. A more shuffling contemptible spawer to a plain statement of facts we have seldom read. Mr Cooper does not meet his opponent fairly and openly. He twiste and wriggles. Now he ling with the sewer are made in a proper is a Sanitary Surveyor, now Assistant Sur. and reasonable manner. The day after veyor General, now Inspector of Buildings, this decision Mr Cooper sent notice to

according as he can best shirk the charge made against him. He writes a letter stating that unless certain alterations are made in private drains to accord with the separate system, sanction for the erection of verandahs will be withheld, and when Noon.-Meeting of Shareholders of The he is accused of this attempted intimids. tion he tells the Board that he never had power as Sanitary Surveyor to grant or refuse permission for verandaha. Then what right lind Inspector of Buildinga Cooper to interfers with private drains, and why did Sanitary Surveyor Cooper allow such an interference? If he denies the Board the right to control his actions as Inspector of Buildings, he must see that these actions do not clash with his functions as Sanitary Surveyor. To uso his power in the former capacity as a threat to coerce those his had to deal with in the latter, and then to janntily turn and tell the Board that it had no control over him, was little short of impudence. Into the other and more technical cases we do not wish to go. Mr Cooper may be right in thinking that a 9-juch pipe is sufficient where Mr Leigh thinks a 12" pipe ought to be. But Mr Leigh has certainly had more experionce of drainage in the Colony than Mr Cooper, and we cannot think he would willingly put his clients to the expense of a large pipe when a small one would suffice. We had quite recently a rather alarming demonstration of what a tropical rain-storm is, and we can sympathise with Mr Leigh in his endeavour to safeguard his clients from the disaster that befel many houses in the month of May. At any rate the subject was a fit one to refer to the Board.

But with the charge that Mr Cooper has attempted to force the adoption of the reparate system, we have more concern, as this is a purely public matter. In Mr Cooper's reply to Messrs Danby & Leigh's first letter, he says :- I have not, to the best of my knowledge and belief, in a single instance, allowed myself to be influenced, in carrying out the duties entrusted to me by the Board, by the separate system of drainage now under the consideration of the Government, Mr Leigh was fortunately able to refresh Mr Cooper's memory and to produce documentary proof of at least one instance in which Mr Cooper's zeal for the separate system had outrun his discretion. On the 19th March last year, Mr Cooper wrote to Messra Danby and Leigh as follows :- 'It being the intention of the Government to adopt the Separate System of Drainage in this city, I ask you in reference to these proposed buildings to consider the following amendments to the drainage system as shown on your plans." Then follows a long list of the smendmente. Skilled although he is in wriggling, Mr Cooper found it impossible to give this letter any other meaning than what it bears on the face of it-a direct intimation that the separate system was to be enforced then and there. We have no doubt when he wrote that letter he was under the impresmon that, baving persuaded the Governor to accept his system, the thing was as good as settled, and that it did not matter a straw what the Legislative Council or the the residents might think of the scheme. Since then he has been somewhat undeceived, and we have no doubt Mr Cooper is now sorry for having so clearly showed his hand. But, although he does not seek to diminish the significance of the letter. he tries to avoid responsibility to the Board by saying in his rejoinder to Messie Danby and Leigh's last communication—that on the date on which it was written, 19th March, he did not hold the appointment of Sanitary Surveyor to the Sanitary Board. That is technically correct, for the present Board was not then in existence, but unfortunately for Mr Cooper there is a second letter dated 24th July-at which time; Mr Cooper was Sanitary Surveyor in which he refers to the 19th March letter and says that if the requirements in respect of drainage ast forth therein are not complied with, i.e. if the private drains are not made to conform to the separate system, then certain privileges will be lost. These two letters fairly expose Mr Cooper's way of working, and he has only made his position worse by his attempt to shirk responsibility for them. Just one other matter, and we have done with this slippery official, who has only too wall learned his lesson from the former head of the P. W. D. Two or three months ago neveral cases. lice Court, the charge against them being the breaking open of a public road in order to connect a house drain with the public sewer. INTERCOLONIAL TELEGRAPHIC COMMUNICATION.

In the Electrical Review of the 16th August a couple of references are made to the above subject. One of these advocates Zealand, the other is adverse to the same To reverence the gods, but to keep at action in respect to the recently proposed Hongkong. The contention of the Electrical Review is that, as a political line, it would be insecure from an enemy as some necessarily lie in shallow waters taking the

On August 10th the cable connection with New Zealand was interrupted; thus we find that one of our great colonies was again cut off from communication with England. This cable was laid in 1876 at a cost, officially stated to be, of about £300.0 0, and 11 years later was offered for sale for £150,000; but this offer. however, was not accepted, as it was found that a new cable could be obtained for less than £150,000. As New Zealand is one of the colonies which is willing to assist in the establishment of the proposed cable across the Pacific, it did not require this One step beyond respectful neglect of the interruption to indicate the necessity of duplicating telegraphic communication with Europe by a soute more secure than that along which the present lines are laid.

In another place we print a correspond once concerning a proposed Direct cable from Hongkong to Singapore.' As it is auggested that this cable should land on the territory of the British North Borneo Company, touching also at Labuan and Sarawak before reaching Singapore, it hardly merits the name of a 'direct cable.
